

USER POLICY

Quick User Policy Summary

---

USING STACKD

- You must have a registered Stackd account to buy or sell. A student email is recommended but not required.
- Keep your login details safe — you are responsible for your account activity.
- The platform is for textbooks, notes, and module sets only — no illegal, offensive, or unrelated content.
- We reserve the right to suspend or ban accounts that violate these rules

Your Privacy

- We collect your username, email address, and country of study.
- Your information is used solely to manage your account and facilitate transactions on the platform.
- Your data is kept secure. You may request access to or deletion of your data at any time by contacting support.

Selling Rules

- Only registered Stackd users may create listings and sell on the platform.
- Listings must be accurate and honest — no pirated PDFs, illegal material, or misleading descriptions.
- Violating these rules may result in listing removal, account suspension, or a permanent ban

USER POLICY

Quick User Policy Summary

---

Payments & Fees

- Transactions are secure and processed through Paystack's gateways.
- Stackd handles refunds and disputes if needed.
- No payment will be asked via email or off our website
- All payments are in South African Rand

Copyright & Reporting

- Sellers must own the material they list.
- Pirated content or illegal listings will be removed.
- Users can report issues through our reporting form.

Contact & Support

- For any questions, disputes, or requests, contact us through the support form on the platform.
- We aim to respond to all support queries within 1 hour

By creating an account and using Stackd, you agree to this user policy and any future updates